

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

2019 SUSAN G. KOMEN RACE FOR THE CURE Colorado Springs

ORGANIZATION:

Susan G. Komen Colorado will be hosting the 25th Annual Race for the Cure in the beautiful Garden of the Gods. 75% of every dollar raised stays in Colorado. 25% of every dollar goes to research to ultimately end breast cancer. Our event is made possible by our incredible volunteers. These passionate individuals and groups go beyond simply supporting our cause; they get out there and make this important fundraising event a success, which in turn will help Komen fund breast cancer research, education, screening and treatment.

WHO:

We are in need of approximately 50 volunteers willing and able to work hard for an amazing cause. There are a variety of volunteer positions available. Please be prepared for a variety of weather conditions and closed toed shoes are highly recommended. There will be lifting of 25 to 30 pounds for some positions. Work gloves would also be handy.

WHAT:

Volunteers are needed to assist with setting up and tearing down the event area, racecourse and parking areas. This includes tents, tables, chairs, signage, cones, etc. Later shifts will help restore the event and racecourse to its original condition. We will also need a number of volunteers to assist in directing participants in the parking areas and assuring safety as crossing guards where needed.

WHERE:

The Garden of the Gods, Rockledge Ranch

WHEN:

7 September 2019, Saturday: 8:30am to 2:00pm for set up (only 10 people needed for this shift)

8 September 2019, Sunday:
