

PRE-DEPLOYMENT SOCIAL MEDIA PLAN RESOURCES FOR SOLDIERS & FAMILIES

This Social Media Plan is presented as a template from Fort Carson Army Community Service for your use to communicate deployment information and resources for Soldiers and Family members.

The links provided in this plan are accurate as of date of publication. Please double check all links before posting.

HOW TO USE THIS DOCUMENT:

1. Copy and paste messages into your own unit social media page(s).
2. Start at least 8 weeks prior to deployment, posting a new resource message every 1-3 days at various times.
3. Messages do not have to be posted in any particular order, and can be posted based on the trends or questions you are seeing.
4. Add a graphic for attention of those posts that do not have a hyperlink.
5. Replace text on page 2 to personalize your specific unit information.

ACS can provide additional Soldier & Family readiness information and resources. Contact ACS at 719-526-4590 for assistance.

	Use the talking points on this page to craft your own social media message highlighting unit resources. PERSONALIZE these messages to work for your unit.
Rear Detachment Mission	Our unit has Soldiers who will be serving the Rear Detachment mission to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Train and equip new incoming Soldiers.</li> <li>2. Coordinate with the deployed element of the unit.</li> <li>3. Enable readiness of the unit's Families by directing them to the helping agencies they need.</li> <li>4. Ensure that buildings and equipment left behind here at Fort Carson are safe and secured.</li> </ol> You can reach Rear Detachment by calling xxx-xxx-xxxx or emailing xxxxxxxxxxxx. Our unit website/vFRG/Social Media site, etc. is: xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx
Communication	Communicating with my Soldier: How will communication during deployment work? Will mobile phones work, allowed? Special APPS? Mail, when can it start, how will Families get the mailing address? Anything prohibited in the mail? Morale phones available, etc. ??
Unit vFRG site	vFRG is a great way to stay connected! You must be registered on www.armyfrg.org to gain access. To register: (include unit registration procedures and hyperlink)
Accountability	Discuss any Emergency Data sheet or Spouse Preference Form you would like FM's to complete prior to deployment. Ensure you express that this form will be secured and used for official use only and does not replace the DD93. Inform FM's how you'd like them to update contact information that changes during the deployment.
AO	Share any information that you can to Family members regarding deployed living conditions, living spaces, food options, amenities, cultural information about the AO, etc. Share any actual graphics you might have of the living areas.
Religious Support	Share information about your unit Chaplain and their services

POA's	A Power of Attorney (POA) is a written instrument that allows the “principal” to authorize the agent to conduct certain business on the principal's behalf. What types of events do you anticipate needing a POA for during your deployment? POA's may be needed to renew license plates or dependent military ID's; handling income taxes; handling real estate or vehicle transactions; applying for an Army Emergency Relief loan or conducting other business on behalf of the Soldier. Add message on unit opportunities or procedures for acquiring POA's.	 07_powers-of-attorney.wmv
Preparedness	Checklists can be separated into different posts based on subject For Soldiers and Families: use the following checklists before deployment to ensure you have the paperwork needed before your Soldier deploys. Legal Matters Checklist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Create a Power of Attorney (POA). Contact your legal office for information on types of POAs and advice on which one you should use.</li> <li>● Create and/or update your will.</li> <li>● Plan how bills will be paid. Do you need to set up a joint account?</li> <li>● Review your current life insurance coverage.</li> <li>● Confirm your Servicemembers Group Life Insurance (SGLI) beneficiaries are correct and update if necessary.</li> <li>● If you are currently renting your home and need to cancel your lease, notify your property management company of your deployment. Understand your rights under the Service Members Civil Relief Act.</li> </ul> Legal Documents Keep copies of the following documents (if applicable) together in a secure place: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Wills (for both Soldier and spouse)</li> <li>● Power of Attorney (POA)</li> <li>● Insurance policies (including life, health, home, and vehicle)</li> <li>● Tax records</li> <li>● Court orders (e.g., child support and custody documents or divorce paperwork)</li> <li>● Social Security cards</li> <li>● Birth certificates</li> <li>● Marriage license</li> <li>● Passport</li> <li>● Visas and citizenship/naturalization paperwork</li> <li>● Vehicle titles, registrations, and inspections</li> <li>● Copy of your most recent LES</li> </ul>

Preparedness	Family Care Plan Checklist Use the following checklist to develop your family care plan if you are a single parent or in the event that both parents or caregivers for minor children will deploy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assign a guardian for your family in a special Power of Attorney (POA) and confirm the guardian understands his or her responsibilities.</li> <li>• Obtain ID and commissary cards. To ensure military health coverage for you and your children, register all dependent family members in Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS), and check to make sure all ID cards have not expired.</li> <li>• Make sure Servicemembers Group Life Insurance (SGLI) is correct.</li> <li>• Arrange for housing, food, transportation, and emergency needs.</li> <li>• Inform caretakers of your financial matters.</li> <li>• Arrange for guardian to have access to necessary funds.</li> <li>• Arrange for child care, education, and medical care.</li> <li>• Arrange necessary travel and escort to transfer family members to the new guardian.</li> </ul> Discuss these plans with your children.
Financial	What are your financial goals during deployment? The SDP can help you get there! The DOD Savings Deposit Program (SDP) was established to provide members of the uniformed services serving in a designated combat zones the opportunity to build their financial savings. Amounts up to $10,000.00 may be deposited, earning 10% interest annually. Members must be receiving Hostile Fire Pay and be deployed for at least 30 consecutive days, or 1 day in each of 3 consecutive months in order to participate in the program. https://www.dfas.mil/militarymembers/payentitlements/sdp.html
Resilience	In the Emotional Cycle of Deployment, pre-deployment can be a time of increased stress. Family members may feel more emotional towards the anticipation of separation. The focus can change towards completing family pre-deployment activities. The frequency of stress and arguments may increase. Parents may struggle with how to talk to children about deployment. All of this can lead to feelings of anger, restlessness, depression, irritability, sadness, fear and guilt. What coping strategies do you and your family use during this time? Www.militaryonesource.mil is one of the agencies that can help provide support.
