From the Director's Desk

Welcome to Fort Carson, Colorado, the Mountain Post! On behalf of the Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (DFMWR), I am delighted to welcome you to the Best Hometown in the Army. Fort Carson offers a wide range of opportunities, experiences, education, and adventures for you and your family during your time in Colorado.

The Mountain Post promotes a balanced lifestyle, encouraging personal growth through work, life, training, and thriving. We invite you to explore the extensive programs and services available within Fort Carson and its surrounding communities.

Our Family and MWR team provides numerous opportunities for physical activity, educational growth, and expanding your horizons. We offer world-class child development services, expert advice on financial, relationship, employment, and relocation matters, and diverse sports, fitness, and aquatics programs. Additionally, we have auto skills, library services, golf, bowling, recreational shooting, catering and conferencing, white water rafting, mountain climbing, skiing, and exceptional community events.

We pride ourselves on building trust, empowerment, and motivation within our community. Let the Fort Carson Family and MWR be your first choice for quality-of-life services and start your Mountain Post experience now! For more information, please reach out to any of our Family and MWR team members, visit carson.armymwr.com, and follow us on social media.

Welcome to the Fort Carson Mountain Post, "The Best Hometown in the Army - Home of America's Best."

Services

Membership to Grant Library is free for military personnel and their families, and we welcome civilians with base access to join as well. Visit us in person or explore our online catalog to discover the wealth of resources waiting for you at Grant Library. Let's embark on a journey of discovery and enrichment together!

Grant Library established a Community Resource Center of books for soldiers, Family Members and civilians to utilize. The purpose of this display is to ensure those who visit our library will have vital information about our post and surrounding communities and to assist their transition and truly "thrive" as part of our military community. It's also a resource for our in-house Leaders Academy Program. Current books and playaways cover Fort Carson history, 4th ID history, leadership, and numerous other topics.

This is a co-branded piece created with The Kibler Group | Keller Williams Partners. You are entitled to shop around for the best lender/real estate company for you. The pre-approval may be issued before or after a home is found. A pre-approval is an initial verification that the buyer has the income and assets to afford a home up to a certain amount. This means we have pulled credit, collected documents, verified assets, submitted the file to processing and underwriting, ordered verification of rent and employment, completed an analysis of credit, debt ratio and assets, and issued the pre-approval. The pre-approval is contingent upon no changes to financials and property approval/appraisal. Make sure you understand the features associated with the loan program you choose, and that it meets your unique financial needs. Subject to Debt-to-Income and Underwriting requirements. This is not a credit decision or a commitment to lend. Eligibility is subject to completion of an application and verification of home ownership, occupancy, title, income, employment, credit, home value, collateral, and underwriting requirements. Veterans Affairs loans require a funding fee, which is based on various loan characteristics. 1- On an IRRRL loan, the Veterans Affairs does not require an appraisal, but NFM Lending may require a drive-by-appraisal. Income documentation is not required, but source of income must be verified. 2- Sales price cannot exceed appraised value. 3- In a purchase transaction, reasonable closing costs may be paid by the seller, and the program is available with no points depending on credit profile, collateral, and current mortgage history.
