

Army Volunteer Corps

The Army Volunteer Corps is your destination to volunteer opportunities on and off Fort Carson, and throughout our community. Fort Carson is home to more than 6,000 volunteers, contributing nearly 200,000 hours annually. This selfless service is equivalent to $4 million. Join the force and make a difference!

Volunteering within ACS offers volunteers enriching and fulfilling service opportunities further supporting the ACS mission of commitment to excellence. These apportunities empower volunteers with Fart Carson and community program resources and services. Volunteer between the opportunity respond, howe or build first sitilise and connect sitilise and connect sitilised and halping Neighbors.' On the fourth Saturdey of Ordober, millions of volunteers participate in community projects. Every year more than 3 million people help complete thousands of projects in hundreds of towns and communities around the United States. On-Post Volunteer Opportunities There are a number of on-post volunteer opportunities with our partners. Our on-post partners include: the American Red Cross, Army Community Service, Fountain-Fort Carson District 8 Schools (on-post schools), Mountain Post 150 posses? Club & Thirlf Shop, Mountain Post 150 and more! For the full list of on post volunteer opportunities, visit our webpage. Off-Post Volunteer Opportunities Operation Good Samaritan (for off- post, non-profit) Fort Carson Nos a volunteer umbrella position which covers all off-post volunteer service opportunities, visit our webpage. Fort Carson has a volunteer umbrella position which covers all off-post volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan. (for off- post, non-profit) Fort Carson Nos a volunteer umbrella position which covers all off-post volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan. (Full Shop) Information System (VMIS). Build your efficial Volunteer Service Record of https://ymis.armytamilywebpartal.com. For more information system (VMIS). Build your efficial Volunteers and Programs: Commonding General's Certificate of Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Veer, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteer, and Military Outstanding Volunteers. & Organization Programs: Commonding General's Certificate of Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Veer, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteers and PoPCs is held the last Wednesday of every month, 1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer fours, visit our website and chack out the Ovicit Wist Show in Resource Guideer contact AVC: 719-252. 108	Army Community	commitment to excellence. These opportunities empower volunteers with Fort Carson and community program resources and services. Volunteers have the opportunity expand, hone or build their skillset and connect with dynamic teams!
Opportunities Army Community Service, Fountain-Fort Carson District 8 Schools (on-post schools), Mountain Post Spauses' Club & Thriff Shop, Mountain Post Santa's Workshop, Tumbleweeds at the Mountain Post, USOs of Fact Grason, Warrior's Warehouse, Fort Carson Units and more! For the full list of on post volunteer opportunities, visit our webpage. Catholic Charities, Care and Shore, Colorado Springs Promise Food Distribution, Citizen's Project, Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region, Salvetion Army, Silver Key, Pikes Peak United Way, and many more! For the full list of off post volunteer opportunities, visit our webpage. Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer service near this position, your volunteer service Recard at https://wmis.armyfamilywebpartal.com . For more information, visit our webpage! Fort Carson Volunteer Award Recognition Programs Annual Recognition Ceremony, Quarterly and Immediate Recognition Programs: Commanding General's Certificate of Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Year, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteer, and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM). Volunteers of the Quarter (VOQ) are also recognized quarterly through a nomination process. VMIS: Volunteer VMIS: Volunteer Acas Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Department of Defense activities such as MINR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when acting within the scope of their position description, are provided certain benefits by low such as worker's comp		helping Neighbors.' On the fourth Saturday of October, millions of volunteers participate in community projects. Every year more
Opportunities Opportunities Opportunities Opportunities Opportunities Opportunities Opportunities, visit our webpage. Fort Carson has a volunteer umbrella position which covers all off-post volunteer service opportunities called Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan / for off-post, non-profit) Fort Carson Post, non-profit) Fort Carson Volunteer Award Recognition Programs Annual Recognition Programs Annual Recognition Programs VMIS: Volunteer Management Information System Information System Information System VMIS is for volunteer's A Drganizational Points of Contact (OPDCs) / Volunteer Coordinators to register, track, verify, and log service hours. An in-person training for volunteers and OPDCs is held the last Wednesday of every month, 1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Ouick WMIS How To Resource Guide or contact AVC: 719-526.1082 / 526.8303 Types of Volunteers Statutory Volunteers are those volunteers are part of non-federal entities authorized to operate on the installation. These organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization. Gratuitous Service Volunteers provide services to organizations not covered under the federal statute, and do so with no		Army Community Service, Fountain-Fort Carson District 8 Schools (on-post schools), Mountain Post Spouses' Club & Thrift Shop, Mountain Post Santa's Workshop, Tumbleweeds at the Mountain Post, USO at Fort Carson, Warrior's Warehouse, Fort Carson Units
Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer hours can be tracked through the Volunteer Management Information System (VMIS). Build your official Volunteer Service Record at https://wmis.armyfamilywebpartal.com . For more information, visit our webpage! Annual Recognition Ceremony, Quarterly and Immediate Recognition Programs: Commanding General's Certificate of Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Year, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteer, and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM). Volunteers of the Quarter (VOQ) are also recognized quarterly through a nomination process. VMIS: Volunteer Management Information System VMIS is for volunteers & Organizational Points of Contact (OPOCs) / Volunteer Coordinators to register, track, verify, and log service hours. An in-person training for volunteers and OPOCs is held the last Wednesday of every month, 1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Quick VMIS How To Resource Guide or contact AVC: 719.526.1082 / 526.8303 Types of Volunteers Statutory Volunteers are those volunteers authorized by federal statute (10 USC 1588) to provide services in certain Department of Defense activities such as MWR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when acting within the scope of their position description, are provided certain benefits by law such as worker's compensation. Private Organization Volunteers are part of non-federal entities authorized to operate on the installation. These organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization.		Peak Region, Salvation Army, Silver Key, Pikes Peak United Way, and many more! For the full list of off post volunteer
Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Year, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteer, and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM). Volunteers of the Quarter (VOQ) are also recognized quarterly through a nomination process. VMIS: Volunteer WMIS: Volunteer WMIS is for volunteers & Organizational Points of Contact (OPOCs) / Volunteer Coordinators to register, track, verify, and log service hours. An in-person training for volunteers and OPOCs is held the last Wednesday of every month, 1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Quick VMIS How To Resource Guide or contact AVC: 719.526.1082 / 526.8303 Types of Volunteers Statutory Volunteers are those volunteers authorized by federal statute (10 USC 1588) to provide services in certain Department of Defense activities such as MWR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when acting within the scope of their position description, are provided certain benefits by law such as worker's compensation. Private Organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization. Gratuitous Service Volunteers provide services to organizations not covered under the federal statute, and do so with no	Samaritan (for off-	Operation Good Samaritan. Under this position, your volunteer hours can be tracked through the Volunteer Management Information System (VMIS). Build your official Volunteer Service Record at https://vmis.armyfamilywebportal.com . For more
Management Information System Service hours. An in-person training for volunteers and OPOCs is held the last Wednesday of every month, 1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Quick VMIS How To Resource Guide or contact AVC: 719.526.1082 / 526.8303 Types of Volunteers Statutory Volunteers are those volunteers authorized by federal statute (10 USC 1588) to provide services in certain Department of Defense activities such as MWR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when acting within the scope of their position description, are provided certain benefits by law such as worker's compensation. Private Organization Volunteers are part of non-federal entities authorized to operate on the installation. These organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization. Gratuitous Service Volunteers provide services to organizations not covered under the federal statute, and do so with no	Award Recognition	Appreciation, Exemplary Service Award, Youth and Adult Volunteers of the Year, Steadfast and Loyal Hall of Fame Volunteer, and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM). Volunteers of the Quarter (VOQ) are also recognized quarterly through a
Department of Defense activities such as MWR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when acting within the scope of their position description, are provided certain benefits by law such as worker's compensation. Private Organization Volunteers are part of non-federal entities authorized to operate on the installation. These organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization. Gratuitous Service Volunteers provide services to organizations not covered under the federal statute, and do so with no	Management	service hours. An in-person training for volunteers and OPOCs is held the last Wednesday of every month,1:30-3:00pm, at the ACS Main Center. To learn how to get started, how to select a position, and how to enter volunteer hours, visit our website and check out the Quick organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for incidents/accidents or injury to the volunteer are the responsibility of the private organization. Gratuitous Service Volunteers provide services to organizations not covered under the federal statute, and do so with no	Types of Volunteers	Department of Defense activities such as MWR, family programs, museums, chaplain, child care, etc. Statutory volunteers, when organizations contribute to the overall installation mission, but their volunteers are not considered statutory. All liability for
		·

FIND CLASS DATES & REGISTER ON OUR WEBSITE: WWW.CARSON.ARMYMWR.COM/ACS
(719) 526-4590
Updated: May 2022

Fort Carson Organizations Where You Can Volunteer

Fort Carson Agencies/Directorates

- Army Community Service (ACS)
- Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation (DFMWR)
- Directorate of Human Resources (DHR)
- Directorate of Public Works (DPW)
- Fort Carson Museum
- Religious Support Office (RSO)
- Multi-media Visual Information (DPTMS)
- Public Affairs Office (PAO)
- Staff Judge Advocate (SJA)

Soldier Family Readiness Groups (SFRGs)

- ❖ 1st Space Brigade
- ❖ 1st SBCT, 4ID
- ❖ 2nd IBCT, 4ID
- ❖ 3rd ABCT, 4ID
- ❖ 4th CAB, 4ID
- ❖ 4th SFAB, 4ID
- ❖ 4th EN
- 627th Hospital Center
- ❖ 71st Ordnance Group
- ❖ 759th MP Battalion
- ❖ 10th SFG (A)
- HHBN, 4ID
- DIVARTY, 4ID
- ❖ MEDDAC/VET/DENTAC
- Special Operations Command North (SOCNORTH)
- Wounded Transition Battalion (WTB)

For VMIS classes, resources & materials.

To create a VMIS account, apply & search for positions & enter hours.

Private Organizations / Non-Profit Organizations Where You Can Volunteer

American Red Cross (ARC)

Catholic Charities

Fountain-Fort Carson School District 8

Fort Carson Boy Scouts - Troop 164

Fort Carson Cub Scouts - Pack 264

Fort Carson Girl Scouts - Service Unit 417

Fort Carson Operation Good Samaritan--GOS

Fort Carson Knights of Columbus, Council 15269

Fort Carson Retiree Council

Mountain Post Spouses' Club & Thrift Shop

Mountain Post Santa's Workshop

Mt. Carmel Veteran Services

Silver Key

Tumbleweeds at the Mountain Post

USO at Fort Carson

Warriors Warehouse & more...

Find Us & Like Us on FB

